THE STANDOUT STYLES THIS YEAR WERE GRACEFUL AND REFINED

'Powerful, beautiful and opulent'
—KING'S STYLISTS ON HER LOOK

SCARLETT JOHANSSON
The double nominee—for Marriage Story and Jojo Rabbit—dazzled in a custom Oscar de la Renta gown, complete with a hand-draped bodice and pewter satin skirt, worn with Forevermark x Anita Ko diamond drop earrings.

CYNTHIA ERIVO
“Mummy, I made it! Little brown girl in white,” the Harriet nominee said of her custom Swarovski crystal-embroidered Atelier Versace ball gown, which she wore with seven rings and two pairs of earrings, all by Piaget.

JULIA LOUIS-DREYFUS
“Calm and relaxed in my everyday wear...” the presenter joked of her custom Vera Wang Collection silk crepe dress. More than $1.5 million worth of Harry Winston diamonds, including a 60.18-carat necklace, upped the glam factor.

REGINA KING
Stylists Wayman Bannerman and Micah McDonald, who dressed the presenter in a custom Atelier Versace gown and Harry Winston diamonds, say the look reflects how she is “accomplished and in every way an icon.”

KAITLYN DEVER
The Booksmart star chose a custom embroidered Louis Vuitton eco-friendly gown and nearly $500,000 of Harry Winston jewels. (Hiding underneath? $95 Aldo platforms.)

RENEE ZELLWEGER
Over the course of a dozen fittings, three tailors created the Judy winner’s custom Armani Privé column, which features clear square paillettes and round bead detailing. A David Webb ring added even more sparkle.

CHARLIZE THERON
“It’s really fun to dress her—she makes everything look good,” says stylist Leslie Fremar of the Bombshell nominee, who wore a custom silk Dior Haute Couture dress and black stilettos.

BRIE LARSON
The presenter’s embroidered Celine cape dress was constructed with a special crocheting technique and 249,500 sequins, glass beads, Swarovski crystals and pink gemstones.
